2007 Toucan Wines Estate Zinfandel – $34 (20% Price $27.20)

*Best of Class and GOLD, Los Angeles International Wine Competition 2010
Gold, San Diego Wine Competition 2010*

A very elegant wine with a lovely nose of ripe, dark sweet plum, violets, and white pepper, rich blackberry flavors are in the foreground with excellent acid balance and soft tannins. Harvested in small batches in September, the fruit came into the winery in perfect condition with nearly identical numbers to the 2005 vintage. Several days of cold soaking led to a slow fermentation in small open bins, then blended with 10 Estate Petite Sirah and aged for 16 months in 60% new French, Hungarian, and American oak barrels. We proudly bottled 245 cases on February of 2009, unfinned and unfiltered.

2008 Toucan Wines Estate Zinfandel – $34 (20% Price $27.20)

*Gold, Los Angeles International Wine Competition 2011
Silver, San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition 2011*

Opulent and balanced best describe the 2008, dark and rich in color with an elegant blast of beautiful complex ripe berry fruit welcomes your taste-buds with a core of delicious fruit and a long inviting finish. Big, Lush, Ripe and Inviting sums up the 2008 vintage. Our 2008 Estate Zinfandel was harvested in seven pickings, plus the Petite Sirah all from our 3 ½ acre Arroyo Grande vineyard. Cold soaked in small fermentation bins and slowly fermented, each picking was barreled down separately in a mix of 60% new oak and 40% second and third year barrels for 16 months. That final blend included 14% of Estate Petite Sirah for body, flavor and complexity. On March 15th, 2010 we hand-bottled 270 cases unfinned and unfiltered.
